IPSC SAFE-A-THON

IPSC is organizing its first ever Safe-a-thon in the 12th edition of the conference. In this collaborative & a problem solving initiative, teams from same/multiple hospitals/ healthcare institutions/industries and diverse skills will come together to solve patient safety issues. The expected result would be game changing solutions and translating these solutions not just on paper but may be into a working demo using new age technologies. Teams would develop fully implementable solutions, moving beyond conceptual ideas to tangible, executable projects.

The proposed solutions shall be evaluated based on problem understanding, solution feasibility, implementation plan, impact potential, scalability and cost effectiveness. 3 best solutions shall be declared as winners and get the exciting prizes and chance to present their solutions in the main conference. Multidisciplinary teams could be constituted within an organization or across multiple organizations in the same city/state or even different countries. An ideal suggested team could include doctor, nurse, quality professional, IT professional and ancillary/management staff/SME. Team can have a Mentor (professors/entrepreneurs/established Start-ups) in addition to a 5-member team.
